

Program Overview and Timeline

---

Module 1 Program Objectives:

- Raise awareness of the importance of data in decision making.
- Define the role of leadership in promoting sustainable data use.
- Build individual and team capacity to apply DDU concepts, approaches, and tools; and promote and sustain them through strong leadership.
- Develop and implement specific plans to overcome barriers to data use and strengthen demand for and use of data at national and sub-national levels.

MODULE #1	DAY ONE	DAY TWO	DAY THREE
Morning	Welcome and Introductions	Session 4: Link Data with Action  Small Group Exercise	Session 5: Identify Opportunities and Barriers to Improving Data Use
	Session 1: The Case for Leadership and DDU
	Session 2: Your Role as a Leader in Promoting Data Use
LUNCH BREAK
Afternoon	Session 2: Continued  Session 3: Context of Decision Making	Session 4: Continued  Data discrepancies  Small Group Exercise	Session 6: Culture Change and Change Management
	Closing Reflections

Module 2 Learning Objectives:

- Present results of implementation of plan created in Module 1
- Communicating results and reinforcing culture change
- Plan the next application of the tools

MODULE #2	DAY ONE
Morning	Welcome
	Session 1: Results Reporting
LUNCH BREAK
Afternoon	Session 2: Reinforce culture change for leadership and data use Communicate outcomes
	Session 3: What's next?
	Closing

